

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can lose over his counter two fifty of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and its advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Calls

upon THE LEADER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Suppliers.

resolutions, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for ordinary notices, readmissions of request, etc., THE LEADER will charge FIVE CENTS A LINE, and heretofore this will be the invariable rule. This, however, ever.

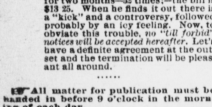

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which need not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Local for THE LEADER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line local inserted in this paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—costs him $10. When he finds it out there is a "kick," and a controversy follows. Let us have a definite agreement from the start, and the termination will be pleasant all around.

ALL matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

IF you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop a note to J. G. Lewis.

J. G. Lewis of Oil Springs visited Maysville yesterday.

D. G. Pence of Concord spent yesterday in this city.

W. D. Dobyns of Lewisburg was in Maysville yesterday.

G. M. Veach of Carlisle was in this city yesterday on business.

L. A. Grimes of Concord was a business visitor to our city yesterday.

George H. Marsh of Van Wert, O., was a visitor to our city yesterday.

Mrs. J. T. Harshman of Chicago is visiting her brother, Mr. James N. Kelsoe of this city.

Mr. William Clinger leaves next week for Portsmouth, where he goes to complete a large contract.

Mr. Louis Naden of Higginsport, O., has returned home after a visit to his sister, Mrs. Martin Crowell.

Mr. George W. Rogers returned yesterday from Louisville where he had been attending the Federal Court.

W. M. Wilt, D. W. January and A. M. January came down from Flemingsburg Wednesday night to attend the ministrations.

John McCord and wife, James Roby and Miss McKee, a quartette from Fleming county, were in town yesterday seeing the sights.

Misses Maggie Duke, Watson, Lullie Respass, May Burgess and Hattie Dobyns are spending from today until Monday with Mrs. James and their and Mrs. Fannie Jefferson of Millersburg.

Mrs. Jacob Miller, accompanied by his granddaughters, Misses Nellie Mitchell and Edith Means, returned home yesterday afternoon after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. William Shusser of Cincinnati.

The case of the M. and B. Railroad vs. Ingram, appealed from Lewis county, has been affirmed.

Avery W. McMurray, aged 22, and Miss Cora B. Willis, aged 19, of Richmond were married at the Gibson House, Cincinnati.

G. and C. F. Cecil of Danville sold to P. Stewart of Milwaukee, Lake Ray, a two-year-old filly by Nutcracker, dam by Hambrino; price, $1,000.

F. Devine has sold for C. C. Hopper a house on West Third street to William Dobyns for $650, also one in same neighborhood to Laura Yates for same price.

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can lose over his counter two fifty of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and its advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Calls

upon THE LEADER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Suppliers.

resolutions, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for ordinary notices, readmissions of request, etc., THE LEADER will charge FIVE CENTS A LINE, and heretofore this will be the invariable rule. This, however, ever.

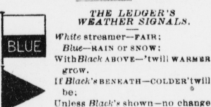

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which need not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Local for THE LEADER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line local inserted in this paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—costs him $10. When he finds it out there is a "kick," and a controversy follows. Let us have a definite agreement from the start, and the termination will be pleasant all around.

ALL matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

IF you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop a note to J. G. Lewis.

J. G. Lewis of Oil Springs visited Maysville yesterday.

D. G. Pence of Concord spent yesterday in this city.

W. D. Dobyns of Lewisburg was in Maysville yesterday.

G. M. Veach of Carlisle was in this city yesterday on business.

L. A. Grimes of Concord was a business visitor to our city yesterday.

George H. Marsh of Van Wert, O., was a visitor to our city yesterday.

Mrs. J. T. Harshman of Chicago is visiting her brother, Mr. James N. Kelsoe of this city.

Mr. William Clinger leaves next week for Portsmouth, where he goes to complete a large contract.

Mr. Louis Naden of Higginsport, O., has returned home after a visit to his sister, Mrs. Martin Crowell.

Mr. George W. Rogers returned yesterday from Louisville where he had been attending the Federal Court.

W. M. Wilt, D. W. January and A. M. January came down from Flemingsburg Wednesday night to attend the ministrations.

John McCord and wife, James Roby and Miss McKee, a quartette from Fleming county, were in town yesterday seeing the sights.

Misses Maggie Duke, Watson, Lullie Respass, May Burgess and Hattie Dobyns are spending from today until Monday with Mrs. James and their and Mrs. Fannie Jefferson of Millersburg.

Mrs. Jacob Miller, accompanied by his granddaughters, Misses Nellie Mitchell and Edith Means, returned home yesterday afternoon after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. William Shusser of Cincinnati.

The case of the M. and B. Railroad vs. Ingram, appealed from Lewis county, has been affirmed.

Avery W. McMurray, aged 22, and Miss Cora B. Willis, aged 19, of Richmond were married at the Gibson House, Cincinnati.

G. and C. F. Cecil of Danville sold to P. Stewart of Milwaukee, Lake Ray, a two-year-old filly by Nutcracker, dam by Hambrino; price, $1,000.

F. Devine has sold for C. C. Hopper a house on West Third street to William Dobyns for $650, also one in same neighborhood to Laura Yates for same price.

Postponed.
The birthday party at the M. E. Church, South, has been postponed until next week on account of the weather. Notice will be given at church Sunday.

Miss Jennie Leggett of Dover is teaching a select school at Tuckahoe.

The Dover Public School closed last Friday night with an exhibition.

Danville's new flour works plant is now completed at a cost of about $70,000.

Received a fresh supply of Pottery coal. CITIZENS' COAL COMPANY. Office—Commerce street.

The enrollment of the Flemingsburg High School has reached the 300 mark, while the average attendance is 280.

Great guns! A gander died last week in Bath county at the toothsome age of 60 years. This is no "tough" joke, oh, no!

Mr. John H. McCord and Miss Lizzie Kunkin, of Flemingsburg county, were married at the County Clerk's Office yesterday by Judge Hutchins.

The Dover News says: "Clermont county, O., has a Mt. Olive. Robertson county, Ky., has a Mt. Olive. Who's ahead? Why, Robertson: A ahead."

Mr. Ed. F. Hutcheson and Miss Lizzie Hughes, both of this county, were married yesterday in the parlors of the Rodden Hotel, Rev. D. P. Hoff officiated.

Riley Grannan, the Louisville plunger, is said to have dropped $25,000 on the San Francisco races. Pittsburgh Phil is $30,000 ahead and David Gideon $20,000.

A cat was in the line of Lexington between the fire insurance companies since the attempt to force that city to accept the new schedule rates by the compact companies failed.

The Dover Band will start out next week for a series of concerts at neighboring towns. We hope it won't strike Mayville until the weather is a little better, so we can enjoy the music.

When it comes to putting up all sorts of weather March always gets there with both feet. Yesterday she opened up her stock and gave us a sample of all she had—rain, sleet, thunder and lightning. This morning it is as slick under foot as chained lightning on a greased track. March always makes the weather clerk tired. She only carries remnants, and when you venture away from home in March, you will show it. If you take along your umbrella, overcoat, gum boots, skates and linen duster.

The Secretaries in the Corporation Department of the Office of the Secretary of State are just now busy going over the reports of the Kentucky Building and Loan Association, which are required to make a full and complete annual report to the Legislature on the 1st of every February. There are something more than 150 of these associations in Kentucky, and while no official figures as to their condition are obtainable as yet, a casual study of the reports indicate that there was no big increase in the business of many during the past year, while all seem to have been running on a more conservative basis than heretofore.

RELEASED ON A WRIT.

ONLY TO BE REARRESTED BY CONSTABLE DAWSON AND PLACED BACK IN JAIL.

There was an animated scene in Squire Bramel's Court at a late hour last night. The readers are familiar with the arrest of Jack Kelley, a youth from Cincinnati, and three companions, charged with breaking a seal on a C. and O. freight car.

The case was examined before Judge Wadsworth.

Attorney J. L. Whitaker appeared for the boys and asked that the case be dismissed on the ground that the Police Judge had no jurisdiction in the case.

The motion was overruled, and the quartette held in the sum of $350 each. They went to jail.

Last night young Kelley's sisters came for the boys and secured the services of Attorney Worthington in their brother's behalf.

Attorney Worthington appeared before Judge Hutchins and asked for a writ of habeas corpus for Kelley's release, contending like Attorney Whitaker that the Police Judge had no jurisdiction.

County Attorney Adair was on hand and warmly opposed the proposition.

The writ was issued and the prisoner turned loose. Constable Dawson then turned up with a warrant and Kelley was again placed behind the bars, where he will keep his companions company until the June roses bloom and Circuit Court convenes.

There is a great deal of sickness in this city.

The remains of Mr. General Thomas T. Crittenden, who died at Chicago, were interred at Frankfort.

Ethelmer E. Ambrose, formerly of this city, was married recently at Pueblo, Col., to Miss Lucille M. Darlington.

The next meeting of the Brown County Teachers' Association will be held at Henderson Saturday, March 16th.

Squire Jacob Miller has been suffering for the past week with neuralgia in the face, but is able to attend to business.

County Judge Hillis of Lewis county will shortly move his family to Vanceburg. They now reside near Covadale.

Mrs. C. D. Outen of West Third, who has been confined to her bed for several days with a severe case of grip, is much better this morning.

Rev. T. P. Walters of the Aberdeen Circuit, M. E. Church, recently closed a protracted meeting at Fitch's Chapel with fifty-two accessions to the church.

It is understood that the lot of nails sold by the Norton Iron Works by the shanks of the steamer Longfellow was not insured, so the company will be in for the loss.

Ben Gross, the Sherburne poultry dealer, left last week for New York with a carload of fine poultry, consisting of 300 geese, 100 turkeys, 100 ducks and 1,400 chickens.

Mr. Rufus Dryden of the Sixth Ward, who was partially paralyzed several days ago, and who was thought to have been fatally stricken, is now able to sit up, much to the gratification of his many friends.

Louisville and Nashville earnings for the first week in March shows a slight decrease in all departments. The total gross earnings, were $23,235, a decrease of $10,550 compared with the corresponding period last year.

Danville is all broke up. Wednesday afternoon a man saw some water running out of a hydrant, and soon the whole town, horses, mules, pigs and cows, had gathered round to take a squint at the new water works.

The Lexington Conference of the M. E. Church, which convened at Scott's Chapel Wednesday morning, is progressing nicely. The whole of yesterday was consumed in committee work and examining the credentials of the Pastors.

The members of Father Mathews Total Abstinence Society are requested to meet this Friday evening at 7 o'clock to make arrangements to attend the funeral of our late brother, James Redmond.

JOHN O'MARON, Secretary.

THE LATE MR. SPALDING.

THE COVINGTON TOBACCO EXCHANGE FITTINGLY EULOGIZES HIS DEATH.

That the late Mr. Daniel Spalding was liked, trusted and held high in the estimation of others beside those who reside in Mayville is attested by the following from The Covington Commonwealth:

At a meeting of the Tobacco Exchange the death of Daniel Spalding was announced, and after appropriate and feeling remarks by several members of the trade, the Committee on Resolutions made the following report, which was unanimously adopted:

"What shall we say of our departed friend and associate, Mr. Daniel Spalding, whose connection with the tobacco trade dates beyond our memory of its history?"

"For fifty-five years of his life a follower of the meek and lowly Nazarene, and true, which he always did with ability, integrity and fearlessness, and ever won the confidence and esteem of his associates."

"A man of strong convictions, outspoken and emphatic in his opposition to anything that bore the semblance of dishonesty or unfairness, and untiring in his efforts to uphold honor and truth, yet ever kind and generous to the poor and distressed. Without pretension or show, he went about offering a helping hand, and as President of the School of Reform of our city, which position he held for so many years, his example of kindness and devotion is worthy of all imitation, and many a man and woman will shed a tear when they hear of his death, and recall his acts of benevolence and fatherly kindness to them in their days of childhood's trials and misfortunes. He was a veteran of our tobacco trade, a wise adviser, untiring in the faithful discharge of his duty in the position of President of our school of tobacco trade, a wise adviser, untiring in the faithful discharge of his duty in the position of President of our school of tobacco trade, a wise adviser, untiring in the faithful discharge of his duty in the position of President of our school of tobacco trade."

"His career was marked by many vicissitudes, but he accepted, with the spirit of a philosopher, adversity as well as success, and complained not, but was faithful and cheerful to the end."

Miss Sadie Hickey still lingers at the point of death.

A line of beautiful new Vetting just received by Mrs. L. V. Davis, Zweigart Bloch.

The Louisville and Nashville Railroad is preparing to reduce some of the heavy grades between Louisville and Bowling Green.

The Baltimore Methodist Conference tabled a resolution declaring the individual communion cup to be "unorthodox."

The Mason and Bracken, the Mayville and Lexington and the Maple Turnpike Companies will hold their annual elections April 1st. See notice elsewhere.

Ex-Congressman Hook of Tennessee has withdrawn from the race for Doorkeeper of the House. This is believed to improve the chances of Hon. Silas Adams of Kentucky.

The Rev. George R. Crumback, aged 81 years, died at Paducah Wednesday of general debility. He had been a Minister of the Gospel for sixty years, and resided in Louisville for several years.

The commission to establish a National military park at Shiloh was appointed yesterday by the Secretary of War. The Commissioners are Don Carlos Buell, Cornelius Cagle and Robert T. Looney.

Garden Seed.

We have a full line of the old reliable Landreth's Seeds, the best on the market, and get prices at Chenoweth's Drugstore.

PAY OF COUNTY CLERKS.

THEY MAY RECEIVE IT AS COLLECTED UPON FILING A PRESCRIBED AFFIDAVIT.

Attorney General Hendrick has rendered an opinion in regard to the duty of the Auditor in payments of Clerks' salaries, of which the following circular letters, mailed to all County Clerks, will be explanatory.

The opinion is addressed to Auditor Norman, and says:

"I have the pleasure to acknowledge the receipt of your favor of the 21st ult., and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk who desires his pay, as his funds are turned into the Treasury under the statute, that the fees from his office in any year have not exceeded, and in the current fiscal year will not exceed, the sum of $1,000, and in response would say that I thoroughly sympathize with your embarrassment in the construction of Sections 1720 to 1725, inclusive, of the Kentucky Statutes, that you will find, perhaps, a solution of the difficulty in taking statement under oath from each County Clerk

Dr. J. H. SAMUEL,
President Surgeon Good Samaritan Hospital,
Ex-acting Superintendent Longview Insane Asylum.)
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
N AND RUMBLESON—Third street, opposite the Courthouse.

State National Bank

Our designs and shades of Wallpaper are the most handsome and novel ever brought to Mason county, and they are attracting universal pride by all who see them.

Only the best grade of Paints and Oils kept in stock. Paints, Supplies and Artistic Materials a specialty. Prices reasonable. Give us a call.

